

National Coalition for Literacy

2016 NCL Literacy Leadership Award Nomination Form

The National Coalition for Literacy is seeking award nominations for its annual Literacy Leadership Award Celebration. The event will be held in Washington D.C. on September 28, 2016.

A nominee must have made a significant contribution to the field of adult education and literacy that is national in scope or has national significance. (Note that a state or local initiative that has received notable national attention or has been widely recognized as a model for the field would qualify.)

Nominees may be public policy advocates or policy makers, elected officials, program administrators, instructors (paid or volunteer), financial supporters, business leaders, partners, or students. For previous award event information, click here.

Nominations are due by August 1 to Kristin Lahurd: klahurd@ala.org. Literacy Leadership Award Winners will be notified by mid-August. As needed and by request, assistance may be available to offset the cost of travel to D.C.

Your information:

Name:

Title:

Organization:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

The nominee's information:

Name:

Title:

Organization:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

My award nominee is... (Select all that apply)

- A financial supporter
- A program administrator
- A public policy maker/advocate
- An elected official
- A business leader

- An adult education instructor (may be paid or volunteer)
- An adult education student
- An organizational colleague
- An organizational partner
- Other (please specify)

In 250 words or fewer, please summarize the nominee's accomplishments and how the individual, program, or organization has met the following criteria:

- National impact on the field of adult education
- Exhibited leadership as a change agent in adult education
- Extraordinary support of adult education

The NCL Board of Directors will consider this statement in recommending a slate of awardees for approval.